Art urges voyages - and it is easier to stay at home

GAL begins another year with our Annual Member's Meeting, Oct 6, just prior to that demo. See the slate of directors and officers in this newsletter in the box above this column. Nominations will also be accepted at the meeting. 2014-15 was an exciting year for the art league - launching a redesigned website, becoming more visible on FACEBOOK, adding 12 additional artists to SAF plus other arts organizations, our first art supply garage sale, welcoming many new members and one student, and presenting our first scholarship since the mid-1970's. A HUGE THANK YOU to all board members for their dedicated service last year and a special THANK YOU to Marilyn Perry for being secretary for many years. Marilyn is remaining on the board as a director but retiring as our secretary.

As we get ready for another exciting year, please don't do what's easier and stay at home. The Art League is only as viable as its membership. Membership renewal applications will be postal mailed along with Exhibit Application in Oct Newsletter so please sign up to help us in any way you can - large or small. Encourage your friends to join GAL - the more the merrier. YAF already has three new co-chairs for 2016: Deb Anderson, Barb Zabroske, and Gale Fritz, so there are some exciting changes on the way for that event on Sat. Feb 20.

Don't forget you can exhibit your work on the GAL website. Send jpg images and an artist statement to our webmaster Amy Taylor at ZERPLATZEN@aol.com. If you'd like to change the images currently on your gallery page, you can send that information to Amy as well. We will also advertise your exhibits and receptions as space permits in the newsletter and on FACEBOOK if you send information to Amy. And don't forget to 'like' us on FACEBOOK! And share our posts with your friends. It's the social media generation (my grandson just received a utube video announcing his acceptance to Iowa State, personalized with his name!)

The Scholarship Program has been revised and the new eligibility requirements and application will be posted to the website soon. Students who are a resident of Glenview attending any high school as well as students in District 225 can now apply. Deadline to apply is March 30, 2016. The new Scholarship Committee is Maureen Hanlon, Brian Kabat, Gloria Moschel, Barb Zabroske, and myself.

Exhibits Program News Gloria Moschel Exhibits Chair and V.P.

In a reversal of current trends, we are abolishing the fee for participation in the Exhibits program. This is a one-year trial that may become permanent. We are doing this for several reasons. More businesses are showing interest in becoming partners in our mission to bring art to the community and expose the talent that is hidden among our neighbors. We need more of our members to participate.

Increasingly we find that the varied nature of the businesses partnering with us requires tailoring exhibits to their specific needs such as subject, size and duration requirements. We need more flexibility. To participate all you need to do is carefully read and fill out the paperwork being postal mailed in Oct Newsletter and send it in by the dead line. If you have previously participated, you do not need to do anything else. If you will be new to the program, please send in 4 images of your work marked with size and media.

About Jacque France

Jacque received her BFA from the School of the Art Institute of Chicago. Her urge to paint full-time blossomed in 2000 after she attended a landscape painting workshop in Tuscany. Jacque made her public painting debut in March 2005 with a successful show at the La Grange Art League Gallery.

The French Impressionists have been the primary influence in her work. Jacque teams up with her husband to paint and attend European workshops where she has expanded her repertoire. Her work hangs in private and corporate collections throughout the country.
