When you know what you want you will be excited about it and give every ounce of effort to making it come true. - Shannon L. Alder

It may not be Spring yet, but art is busting out all over and GAL is right in the middle of it, so, naturally, we're looking for some volunteers to give every ounce of effort (or just a few ounces) to make them successful in 2016!

The Exhibit Program has grown to 13 venues! Gloria would like a co-chair as it has become more complex to match artists with venues and revise the exhibit schedules. If you did not sign up to exhibit, we may be able to add you to the schedule. We need 2 more Gallery Managers. Can you help? Contact Gloria Moschel at gmoschel@mac.com

The Youth Art Fair is fast approaching on Feb 20th, 8:30-4 pm, Attea Middle School. This is a fun and exciting, one-day event that showcases the art of students grades K-12. Many volunteers are needed from 8:30-11, and in the afternoon. Contact Deb Anderson, Deb_rha@yahoo.com, if you are available for 2 hours, half day or all day. Students need not be a Glenview resident, so have your family and friends enter. Members can place a business card size ad in the YAF program for only $5. 1/4 page for $10. If you had an ad last year we still have your file. Email me if you want to place an ad and mail the fee to GAL, PO Box 463, Glenview, 60025. Deadline is Feb 6.

Call for Art: Wagner Farm is seeking submissions for a poster for their annual Dairy Breakfast, a family event to learn about where their food comes from while having fun with games and demos. The event is on June 18th and the deadline to submit is April 15th. Art needs to be formatted 10x10" or 15x15" and reflect some aspect of Wagner Farm, which is still milking cows right here in Glenview! More details in the Feb newsletter.

Summer Art Fair planning has also begun. Kittie will be doing a lot of prep work, but is out of town the weekend of July 30-31, so we hope to have one volunteer to help each day from 9-5. Contact me or Kittie, kittieyohe@gmail.com, if you are available. Still have some extra time and an ounce of effort? GAL is excited to be partnering with the Natural Resources Committee of the Village of Glenview to host an Art Competition, Celebrating Nature in Glenview. Entry deadline is June 1 after which 30 works need to be selected for exhibit at SAF where they will be judged for awards. If you can help jury the work to be exhibited or to hang the work at SAF, contact me or Kittie. We're aiming to finalize the details and application by Feb 1, so watch for more info in the Feb newsletter or on our website or Facebook page. If you haven't done so already, like us on Facebook.
