Gratitude can transform common days into thanksgivings, turn routine jobs into joy, and change ordinary opportunities into blessings.
- William Arthur Ward

From President Sandy Sheagren sandy@sandysheagren.com

As we enter the season of Thanksgiving, I am grateful for being able to work with so many wonderful volunteers during exciting times for GAL. Thank you to everyone who has given of their time and effort in 2016 to keep us a thriving organization. Please send your membership renewal forms soon and encourage Glenview friends to join so we can keep our partnership with the Park District.

If you haven't returned 2017 Exhibits Program application, send us an email while your paperwork is in transit so we can work you into the schedule. Some venues are no longer available so read the application carefully. You will be receiving your schedule for next year's exhibits in mid December. We will do our best to give everyone 2 places to exhibit and we may call on others to fill the extra spaces.

Join fellow artists to share food and art at the Potluck/Share, Fri Dec 2nd, 6-8:45p at the Glenview Public Library, multi-purpose room. If you have signed up to bring a food item, please come at 5:30 to set up. Bring one piece of your art, either to receive feedback or just share what you do.

The 27th Annual Youth Art Fair will be Sat Feb 25 at Attea Middle School as in previous years. Co-chairs are Barb Zabroske, Deb Anderson, and Gale Fritz. We expect over 200 students, so please consider helping to make this routine job a joy. Many hands are needed, either before or on the day of the event.

We still need someone to contact artists for Demos. It's a simple email or phone call, so please consider helping. If you generally attend all the demos, we also need someone to purchase and set up snacks. GAL will reimburse your expenses.

We will be holding the Nature in GV Art Competition again but accepting photography next year. If you can help jury the entries, please contact me. The Park Center and the Library will be hosting exhibits the same dates as this year.

If you shop on Amazon for the holidays, please use smile.amazon and select GAL as your favorite charity. Same items, same prices, and Amazon gives .5% of your purchase to GAL every little bit helps. Spread the word to family and friends. (pg2)

Thank you in advance for checking all those places you can help us on your membership renewal forms! Looking forward to joy and blessings in 2017.

EMPTY BOWLS@OCC

SAT DEC 3

Bud Sents reminds that The Oakton Ceramics Club is sponsoring an annual event, Empty Bowls at Oakton, on Sat. Dec 3 10:30-2p in conjunction with the Student Government Association of Oakton Community College (OCC). For $15 enjoy a lunch similar to that of a local soup kitchen and select a handmade soup bowl from over 1500 items donated by local potters. Other unique hand crafted art work is also available for purchase or raffle at the event.

100% of the proceeds (almost $30,000 last year) is contributed to local food charities. The benefit will take place at the Des Plaines campus of OCC, 1600 E. Golf Road. A short video at <http://vimeo.com/oakton/emptybowls>
