President's Column From Sandy:

Spring has sprung and art opportunities are popping up all over. But first, OUR APOLOGIES to those who tried to attend the March Demo. The artist had a death in the family and was called away last minute. GAL sent an email about the cancellation - please check your email before heading out to a demo. We corrected communication channels with the Park Center as well. Let us know if you would like to be in charge of a calling tree for those who do not have email, or if you would be available as a last minute demo artist.

CALLS FOR ART - get out your paints, pencils, pastels, cameras ...

Wagner Farm Dairy Breakfast Poster Competition is being held again this year. Deadline to enter is April 17 @ noon.

Details were emailed and can be found on their website at http://www.glenviewparks.org/wp-content/uploads/2014/03/Call_for_Art_Flier_FNL.pdf. (ctrl+click to follow link)

Nature in Glenview Art Competition deadline is June 1st and art needs to reflect an area in Glenview. It is open to photographers this year and we have added an exhibit opportunity at Journey Care for all entries during August. SAF, the library, and the Park Center can only accept a limited number. Details and an application can be found on our website at <http://glenviewartleague.org/nature-in-glenview-art-competition/>. Contact me if you can help jury the entries.

Spring Fling is Wed Apr 19 just around the corner. Watch for your invitation in the postal mail and please reply by April 12. Bring one piece of art for a silent critique. Oil Lamp Theater will be performing again this year. This is a fun social evening, so bring your spouse, partner, or a friend.

Thank you again to Youth Art Fair chairs and volunteers.

Mather HS who had several winning entries, sent these comments:

“Our students and school were so pleased to participate last month in the 28th annual Youth Art Fair. It was a wonderful exhibition and such a great opportunity for the young people who exhibited. We're very grateful for the work and time that you and the Glenview Art League devoted to this event. It was an impressive and inspiring display and the recognition that our students received has made a lasting impression. Thanks for supporting the creative efforts of our students.”
