“The only way to make sense out of change is to plunge into it, move with it, and join the dance.” Alan Watts

GAL is changing by the minute and has a new look! Check out our NEW WEBSITE (but clear your browsing history first). A HUGE thank you to AMY TAYLOR for her countless hours plunging into the tedious task of transferring data and images. Please visit the site: WWW.GLENVIEWARTLEAGUE.ORG move around it, and view your gallery page. As with all change it takes some time to adjust and some things may not have moved across the board well, so let us know if you find an error.

For your gallery page, we could only copy the images from our old website. If those files were small images, we cannot make them bigger or clearer. Compare different artists' pages.

- longest dimension should be 1920 pixels
- jpeg size should be about around 2 MB
- resolution should be 72 dpi
- include your name and the title of the work in the file name.

Want to update your bio? Don't have a gallery page? Email with what you want it to say, or send us a pdf or word document with a maximum of 20 images and Amy will assist you: zerplatzen@aol.com.

The YOUTH ART FAIR is Sat Feb 21 (8-4) at Attea Middle School in Glenview for grades grK-12. Participation is NOT limited to Glenview residents. See application instructions and other info on our website and sign up your kids/grandkids - it's free, it is on one day, and we give prizes in every grade! We need lots of volunteers. If you can spare a few hours contact Deb Anderson deb_rha@yahoo.com

DEMO Feb 3

“Like so many youth, I dreamed of working for Walt Disney. While the dream never materialized I became the prime designer for all the Cap'n Crunch cereal packages which were used by the major Hollywood film studios to promote kids' films.

In my DEMO Life as a Graphic Designer I will share 48 years of treasured fun, some frustration and informative moments. My original art will be on display to view, handle and even dissect just for the fun of it. I promise a chuckle or two and may even reveal a few professional secrets”

Jim is a long time member of the Glenview Art League and a Summer Art Fair Exhibitor where he shows his unique paper sculptures.
