GAL Art Demo: Kari Lindholm-Johnson shares techniques and natural materials for oil painting

Tuesday, March 15 at 7 p.m. at the Glenview Public Library

Kari Lindholm-Johnson currently works as a visual artist, spiritual director, and independent contractor for art and spirituality. Kari has served in various roles at different institutions, including artist in residence, chaplain, interim pastor, associate pastor and guest lecturer. She is married with two grown children. She finds great delight in the Wonder of this world and connecting people through art and faith. You can see more of her artwork at www.KariLindholm-Johnson.com

In this demonstration she will share nine paintings she created for a series “Going Toward The Light.” She will be working on new painting but will show some similar techniques using pattern, lines and circles.

The Glenview Art League’s demo meetings are free and open to the public. This event is ADA accessible. Member News

“The opposite of love is not hate, it’s indifference. The opposite of art is not ugliness, it’s indifference. The opposite of faith is not heresy, it’s indifference. And the opposite of life is not death, it’s indifference.”

— Elie Wiesel
Kittie Yohe shares: “Not quite 5 years ago, Lee Mariani posed for me at the Glenview Art Fair and I took a number of photos of him. I was very taken with these photos and decided to do a painting of him 2 years ago when I was doing a series of portraits in monochromatic colors. Here is the photo and subsequent painting. Lee was an integral part of the Glenview Art League and was always enthusiastic about discussing art topics and philosophy. He was a tireless volunteer for the art league and a true gentleman. He truly will be missed.”

Deb Anderson shares the following news about the Illinois Creative Future Fund. The past few years have been hard on many artists and arts organizations. Illinois still has over $5 billion in remaining American Rescue Plan dollars that legislators are deciding how to allocate. Arts Alliance Illinois is asking the state legislature to dedicate $500 million over the next three year to Illinois’ creative sector. If you agree that investment in the arts is worthwhile, visit https://artsalliance.org to find out more, and call or message your legislators asking them to support this proposal.

Tim Downs is exhibiting seventeen works at Journey Care, 2050 Claire Court, Glenview until April 3, 2022.

Lee Colpi is exhibiting 22 oil paintings in solo exhibition at The Northfield Village Hall lobby gallery from January to March, Monday-Friday, 8:30 a.m.-4 p.m., 361 Happ Road (at the corner of Willow and Happ Road)

Adele Soll Aronson won First Place at the juried AJAC (American Jewish Artist Club) Exhibition at the North Shore Senior Center in Northfield. The theme of the show was “Isolation in the World”.

Bonnie Siegel shares that the Geneva Lake Arts Foundation is proud to host Kathleen B. Hudson for a two day online oil painting workshop on Saturday, June 11, and Sunday, June 12, 2022. Filippo Aliperta is painting musical instruments to be displayed at LG art gallery in Lake Geneva, as well as playing acoustic guitar and finishing writing a story in a small book for his two year old granddaughter who loves books but she can’t read yet. Left: Musical Instruments by Filippo Aliperta

Peter Brinkerhoff shares four recent paintings (above).
Yvonne Wolf, who's given talks at GAL demos in the past, is leading a virtual event with the Morton Arboretum: Birds and Blossoms in Chinese Art, on March 10, 2022 7-8 p.m. Register at https://mortonarb.org.

Call for Artists: GAL Summer Art Fair, July 30-31, 2022

Join us to exhibit in the Glenview Art League's Summer Art Fair. Conveniently located on the inviting, tree-filled lawn of Lyon School in a northern suburb of Chicago.

This volunteer-run event is a beloved community tradition dating back to the 1950s. Crowds are drawn in by fine artwork and fine craft, as well as social and traditional media promotion and live music. Find an online application, printable application at the GAL website. Email glenviewartleague@att.net to volunteer.

Attend the Youth Art Fair, April 9!

The Glenview Art League's 33rd Annual Youth Art Fair will be held, in person at Attea Middle School on Saturday, April 9. Find all the details and register at https://www.glenviewartleague.org/2022-youth-art-fair/. Registration is also available through postal mail, email or by phone. Send the artist's name, grade in the 2021-2022 school year, their school, a contact email and phone number and the medium they'll be using to the Glenvie Art League.

This event is fun, free, and open to young artists through grade 12, in and outside of Glenview. This year's Youth Art Fair will be dedicated in memory of Lee Mariani.

There are many opportunities to get involved, both before and on the day of the YAF. Help spread the word by sharing the flyer, and reposting YAF info on social media. Consider buying an ad in the program as an artist or for your business. GAL member artists can place a business card ad in the program for only $10! Email glenviewartleague@att.net for more information and to volunteer.

Also on April 9: Glenbrook South High School is hosting free community art workshop for children grades K-6 taught by members of Glenbrook South's National Art Honor Society. Workshops are from 11 a.m.-12 p.m. and 1-2 p.m. Young artists can attend both! Contact gbsnahs@glenbrook225.org for more information.
2022 Robert Sherman Art Scholarship

The Robert Sherman Fine Art Scholarship was established to foster the study of art and advance the development of artists in keeping with the mission of the Glenview Art League. The scholarship is open to high school seniors planning to pursue a college degree in a visual art. Application and information available on our website. The deadline to apply is March 30.

Steer clear of art scams

The GAL receives a fair share of scam emails. Most are caught by the spam filter, but we want to remind artists to be aware that vague art inquiries are sometimes scams. An online article describing what to look out for and how the scams work can be found here: https://theabundantartist.com/art-scams/.
