OCTOBER 2022

Awards announced at 6x6 Small Canvas Art Reception, up now through Nov. 15

Awards for this year’s 6x6 Small Canvas Art Exhibition were announced at a reception on Thursday, Sept. 22 in the Glenview Public Library Lobby. First place went to Susan Cunningham for her felted piece, “Falls.” Second place went to Audrey Freson for her “Petunias.” Third place went to Deb Anderson for “Spiderweb.”

Many thanks to Lee Colpi and Hilary Gabel for putting this event together, and for the library staff members who installed the show and did the judging. Also thanks to all attended the receptions and to the artists for making and sharing such beautiful artwork.

Check out the exhibit now until Nov. 15. Contact the Glenview Art League if you’re interested in purchasing a piece, and we’ll put you in touch with the artist.

Oil Lamp Theater Holiday Art Auction

This holiday season, Oil Lamp Theater is seeking donated pieces to feature in its first-ever Holiday Art Auction. Pieces will be featured in the theater lobby throughout the run of It’s A Wonderful Life.

Each piece will feature a tag with the artist’s name and contact information, as well as a short informational blurb about the piece. The auction will go live on November 22 and run through December 22 to ensure that if the pieces are expected to be Christmas gifts, bidders will have plenty of time to have them gift-wrapped. All the proceeds will go toward helping the “Hidden Gem of the North Shore” reach its year-end fundraising goal.

Donating artists will be featured in the production playbill, social media, and the theater's website. Contact Oil Lamp Theater Director of Marketing and Development Neil O'Callaghan at neil@oillamptheater.org or (847) 834-0738.
