MEMBER NEWS

Richard Smyth shares his outdoor painting experiences: I just got this watercolor completed before the cold weather set in. It is going to be a Christmas gift from a husband to his wife. The owners of the house were very kind and brought me hot coffee and a blanket. I added extra details back at my studio as they wanted me to add the spring flowers as by this time of year they were all gone! I had lots of company while painting – their two dogs and young children, both of which were friendly.

Rachel Siegel has two paintings showing at the NSAL Members Show at the Winnetka Community House: “Summer Blooms” and “Winter Branches.”

Filippo Aliperta shares that a party with art, music, dinner and dance at Pescatore banquets on Sept. 23 was very successful. 102 people attended, 20 paintings were on display. Four large paintings were sold and one painting was won in a raffle. Eleven small butterflies paintings (8x10) were given to some of the attendees. We thank the Glenview Art League and Casa Italia Art League for supplying the easels and everyone for the support.

Patty Marfise-Patt shares that on Nov 9, 6:30-8:30 p.m., you can join her at Glenview’s own Artsy Heart shop in the Glen for an ornament making workshop! Advance sign up is required at <https://theartsyheart.com/blogs/events/ornament-making-with-patty-marfise-patt-fiftyblue-pottery>. Shop for functional pottery and unique Hanukkah and Christmas items on Sunday, Nov 12, 10:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the Beth Hillel Bnai Emunah Holiday Boutique!

Sandy Sheagren has a painting included in Woman Made Gallery’s small works exhibit, Nov. 25 to Dec. 23.
